But the owners may receive from the Treasury et any time their full value, to be determined by a Board consisting of the President and the Secretaries of State and the Treasury, and shall thereupon free them.

Section 5. The numicipal authorities of Washington and Georgetown are required to provide active and efficient means for arresting and delivering up fuguire slaves that may escape into the District.

MAIL SURVICE DESCRIPTION IN LIGHT TO A MAIL SURVICE DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPERTY OF T

into the District.

Section 6 provides for a submission to the people of the District of this act, which shall not take effect until the President shall issue a proclamation appeared. of this set, which shall not take effect until the Presiden issue a proclamation samouncing that a respority of the approve it at the polls.

INDIANA'S BRIGADIERS.

Indiana having sixty regiments in the field and only five Brigadier-Generals, has, for some time, been claiming more. To-day the President nominated, on the recommendation of the Indiana delegation, the following Colonels of Indiana Volunteers as Brigadiers: A. P. Hovey, Mouroe, so as to secure daily arrivals, the trip to be W. Kimball, W. P. Benton, J. C. Veitch, P. A. Hackleman. These five names make the number of Generals in the army, including both volunteers and regulars, 189. Some 25 or 30 center shall be bit in the indegree and general of the present of the self-control of the present of the present of the self-control of the present of the present of the present of the presen

Stone shall be tried by Court Martial.

THE STEVENS BATTERY.

The Senate passed the Stevens Battery appropriation with two amendments, one making success, and the other making its acceptance optional with the Secretary of the Navy. Reverdy Johnson and Robert J. Walker were Speaker Grow gave last night the last of shotted.

this Winter. Foreign and Cabinet Ministers, and Senators, and Representatives crowded the rooms.

THE THIRD NEW-YORK CAVALRY. The 3d New-York Cavalry, Col. S. H. Mix At Evansport the Rebels have left the saw-mill nudrill jesterday afternoon near its camp on make quarters for several thousand men. Capitol Hill. This regiment reached this city from Winchester on Monday night, having unout tents, for 24 days. The men and horses are in fine condition and ready for instant service. Secession trophies, consisting of flags, rifles, pistols, anbers and horses, captured from the view sent over to the Maryland shore.

Contrabands are coming daily to the flotilla. Thirty-even arrived in one day lately from the vicioity of Dumfries, and were sent over to the Maryland shore.

Contrabands are coming daily to the flotilla. Thirty-even arrived in one day lately from the vicioity of Dumfries, and were sent over to the Maryland shore. Ashby's Black Horse Cavalry are in possession White refugees also find their way to the floillia talion. During the entire march of this regi- Dumlrice for several years. ment through Virginia it lost but one man in ixteen Rebel presoners, among whom are Lieut. Murray and Richard Ashby, nephew of the Colonel of the Rebel regiment.

to the Associated Press. WARRINGTON, Friday, Me ch 23, 1862. SUPMENTS FROM INSURRECTIONARY POLTS.

battle, and took boside killed and wounded,

Tue licenses do not now extend further than Nashille and intermediate points. Nothing abipped under tem is to be disposed of to persons in some against c United States, or to others furnishing them aid

LETTER TO LIEUT, WORDEN.

THE NEW LEGAL-TENDER NOTES. It is expected that the new legal-tender notes wil be paid out by the Transury about the lat of April.

An order has been issued for the restoration of the mail service between Booneville, Mo., and Independence, which was suspended in December last, in consequence of the Secession war. This important service runs along the South side of the Missouri river, through Lexington, &c. COMMUNICATION WITH FORTRESS MONROP. Arrangements are nearly completed for establishing line of steamers between Washington and Fortress made in nine hours. The proprietor will extend pleted, and the last rail necessary to reconnect Baltifacilities for carrying the mails, and it is more than probable that the Post-Office and War Departments will encourage the enterprise.

THE TAX ON OILS.

AFFAIRS AT SHIPPING POINT, EVANS-

PORT, AND ACQUIA CREEK. Washington, Friday, March 20, 1062.

The steamer Yankee arrived from below has the payment of the sum contingent upon Mr. night, and reports that on Monday morning two Stevens contracting that the vessel shall be a boats crews from her landed at Shipping Point to remove the guns left by the rebels, but while so engaged a body of rebel cavairy, said to be the Dumfries Cavalry, numbering 1,500 men, made their appearance on the hill, and our men pulled off, upon the floor of the Senate during the dis- after securing two guns, one a 9-inch Dahlgren and the other a long 32-pounder, both smooth-hore, which were brought up to the Yard, and found to be double-the weekly receptions which have made his The Yankee fell out into the stream, on the appearhospitable mansion the center of attraction ance of the enemy, and turned her game upon them, at they retired and kept out of range.

The Yankee brought up, in addition to the two Rebel guns, one hundred and sixty 9-inch shells, londed, and four hundred 6 inch shells, unloaded, which were taken from the Rebel batteries.

commanding, had a fine review inspection and touched, and there is sufficient timber at the mill to Two deserters came off from Acquia Creek a days since, who state that large numbers of Rebe dergone forced marches through Virginia, with. troops are congregating at the Rappahanucck, where they will make a stand. Contrabands are coming daily to the flotilla. Thirof the regiment. Major John Mix commands from day to day. Among the last is Dr. Eastman, s the last and Major G. W. Lewis the 2d Bat-

THE NAVIGATION OF THE SOUTH-

the rapid extension of steambout pavigation into the disloyal States, and the importance of having the boats engaged in such navigation controlled by loval citizens, it is ordered that all licenses to pilots and The Secretary of the Treasury has recently leaded by the second July last, which prohibits shipments from those parts of the United States heretofore declared by the Petalent to be in insurrection, without a written doubt will require bonds with security for the loyal. P teldent to be in insurrection, without a written doubt will require bonds with security for the loyal and leave the State.

General Curtis has also issued a circular to the reads.

The conduct of such pilots and engineers.

Conduct of such pilots and engineers.

THE CASE OF GEN. STONE.

Beston. Friday, March 23, 1862.

A resolution was introduced in the House to-day, instructing the Committee on Federal Relations to consider the expediency of addressing to the President of the United States a memorial asking for the lumediate trial of Gen. Stone, now in military confinement. The resolution was calculated a circular to the discussions also issued a circular to the discussion was extended by the Mayor of Weleamon and other prominent cineas of the place, citizens, stating that he will give those that are needy sustenance, and protect the unprotected citizens.

The lown 9th Infantry suffered greatly in the battle of Col. Wall.

Least night, when the lecturer commenced his discourse, the hall was crowded, two-thi do of the consequence of the President of the United States a memorial asking for the lumediate trial of Gen. Stone, now in military confinement. The resolution was natural to the will give those that are needy sustenance, and protect the unprotected citizens, stating that he will give those that are needy sustenance, and protect the unprotected citizens.

The lown 9th Infantry suffered greatly in the battle of Col. Wall.

Least night, when the lecturer commenced his discourse, the hall was crowded, two-thi do of the consequence, and protect the unprotected citizens.

We learn that the will give those that are needy sustenance, and protect the unprotected citizens.

The lown 9th Infantry suffered greatly in the battle of Col. Wall.

Least night, when the lecturer commenced his discourse, the hall was crowded, two-thi do of the consequence, and protect the unprotected citizens.

The lown 9th Infantry suffered greatly in the battle of Col. Wall.

Least night, when the lecturer commenced his discourse, the hall was crowded, two-thi do of the consequence, and it was understood to be a reply to the arguments of Col. Wall.

Least night, when the better consequence of Col. Wall.

Least night was understood to be a reply to the argume the lumediate trial of Gen. Stone, now in military confinement. The resolution was opposed on the The Secretary of the Navy, by direction of the ground that such interference was appealed for; the District, or owned by residents here, shall records such. President, has written a letter to Licut. Worden, though the speakers expressed the hope that Gen. THE WAR IN THE SOUTH-WEST. Stone would speedily have a trial, which common justice demanded. The resolution was rejected almost unanimously.

THE BATIMORE AND OHIO RAILROAD, Baltimona, Friday, March 28, 1869. We are at length able to make the following an nouncement, which will be received with interest by LARGE RE-ENFORCEMENTS ARRIVING. the mercantile classes East and West. The engineers and track-layers report that their forces engaged in restoring the track of the Balti- Seventy Thousand Rebels at Corinth. more and Ohio Railroad have finished their work, with the exception of about three miles only, about midway between Martinsburg and Harper's Ferry. All the numerous bridges, large and small, are con- ADDITIONAL FROM ISLAND No. 10. more, Washington, and the Eastern cities with Wheeling and Parkersburg and the Western Railroad system will positively be laid on Sanday morning, the 30th inst.

THE TAX ON DHS.

At the suggestion and urgest solicitations of Replacement of the Senate, as evinced in the debate on Mr. Grimes's resolution, to the effect that no more Generals be upde except in reward no more Generals be upde except in reward in the mumber of stars in the martial firmament. A bill intended to effect this result may seem be introduced.

THE CONDITION OF THE CONTRIBANDS.
THE CONTRIBANDS.
THE CONTRIBANDS.
The Commission appointed by Gen. Wool to examine into the condition of the contrabandes at Fort Monroe, reported that they should not be made objects of Government charity. That their material wants and moral and intellectual culture should be left to the intelligence and entered their material wants and moral and intellectual culture should be left to the intelligence and entered their material wants and moral and intellectual culture should be left to the intelligence and egenerosity of the people. That the wages of their authority was and solicitations of Repositions. The contrabate of the result may seem to should not be made objects of Government charity. That their material wants and moral and intellectual culture should be left to the intelligence and egenerosity of the people. That the wages of their authority was a should not be determined by individual skill, industry and shifty, and regulated by amply and designed on the related and the should not be determined by individual skill, industry and shifty, and regulated by amply and designed on the related and the should not be determined by individual skill, industry and shifty, and regulated by amply and designed on the related that the should not be determined by individual skill, industry and shifty, and regulated by annual contract of the processing of the people. That the wages of the people of th

from Memphis:

Its informant is a Northerner, whose word, the editor easys, may be relied upon. Memphis is in a tate of terror. The fair grounds are used for a camp. Every one capable of bearing arms is being impressed into the service. Menors even dragged from their bods. The proclamation of the Mayor in regard to burning the cuty has no influence. A majority of Aldermen, in convention with leading anilitary officers, decided at a meeting, held a formight ago, to burn the city when they evacuate, in spite of the Mayor. There are no fortifications at Memphis.

The same struck upward of 20) times. Sint: As some misconceptions appear to exist in this country, relative to myself and the opinions upon American efficiency on their case flairs expressed in The Leadon Review, I shall be greatly obliged. If you will allow me to state through your columns, the law is a management, and as soon as they do this they will be such.

The shows the difference between close and long range shooting.

The case, then, stands thus: The gambonts cannot be discontry, relative to myself and the opinions upon American efficiency myself and the opinions upon American efficiency my same from that journal filters most between close and long range shooting.

The case, then, stands thus: The gambonts cannot the current of the Mississippi will not permit them to get into close quarters without presenting their broadsides to the members of principle will be country. The case, then be caused that will have held no voice in or control ever its management, and that have shell no voice in or control ever its management, and that have shell no voice in or control ever its management, and that have shell no voice in or control ever its management, and that have shell no voice in or control ever its management, and that have held no voice in or control ever its management, and that have held no voice in or control ever its management, and the current of the Mississippi will not permit them to get into control or the scan flaints of the country or ma ago, to burn the city when they evacuate, in spite of the Mayor. There are no fortifications at Memphis. At Fort Randolph, only four guns are mounted. At Fort Pillow, however, there is a strong fortifica-

At Port Phlow, however, there is a strong fortuna-tion, mounting twenty-five sixty-fours and thirty-twos. There are about 7,000 troops there. At New-Orleans, there are thirteen gunboats on the ways, to be plated with railroad from. The report that the South is well supplied with provisions is absurd. They have not stock enough on hand to last six months. Clothing, shoes, &c.,

Mrs. Buckher had arrived at Siemples. She com-plained of not being allowed to go further North than Cairo. In the parker of the Gayles House she attracted universal attention by her buter denunci-tion of Pillow and Ployd. The former is reported to have said that he would shoot Floyd whenever he

WESTERN WATERS.
St. Loves, Fridey, March 22, 1802.
Gen. Halleck has issued an order that in view of he rapid extension of steambout pavigation into the country in the rear is inundated and swampy.

FROM ARKANSAS.

HEADQUARTERS OF COL. CARR'S DIVISION, BEST ON THE AUG. AUG. March 14.

Price, Van Dorn & Co. bave come to life again

Curcano, Priday, March 28, 1862 The Tribune special from Cairo says: A gentle man from Pittsburgh and Savannah arrived here this they were probably attached Sunday (yesterday.)

The Superintendent of the Mobile and Ohio Road bad collected thisteen locomotives and two hundred cars, and placed them under Geo. Polk for moving toops to Corinth. Polk's headquarters were in the capture of Island No. 10. The few engagements of La Grange, Tenn. Besuregard was at Jackson, Miss., on Toesday week.

FROM MEMPHIS.

A REIGN OF TERROR THERE—THE ALDERMEN RESOLVE TO BURN THE CITY—THREAT—ENING TO SHOOT FLOYD.

A special dispatch from Cairo to The Cincennatic Commercial, gives the following news, received from Memphis:

It informant is a Northerner, whose word, the editor says, may be relied upon. Memphis is in a city. The says, may be relied upon. Memphis is in a city. The says, may be relied upon. Memphis is in a city. The says, may be relied upon. Memphis is in a city. The says, may be relied upon. Memphis is in a city. The says, may be relied upon. Memphis is in a city. The says, may be relied upon. Memphis is in a city. The says, may be relied upon. Memphis is in a city. The says, may be relied upon. Memphis is in a city. The says, may be relied upon. Memphis is in a city. The says, may be relied upon. Memphis is in a city. The says, may be relied upon. Memphis is in a city. The says, may be relied upon. Memphis is in a city. The says, may be relied upon. Memphis is in a city. The says, may be relied upon. Memphis is in a city. The says, may be relied upon. Memphis is in a city. The says, may be relied upon. Memphis is in a city. The says, may be relied upon. Memphis is in a city. The says then stands thus, the difference between close and long range shooting.

The superindent part that the engage and the fortices and the following metals will not take a very prominent part this to the minds even of the says that the enemy at this to the minds even of the says that the enemy at the company at the control of the care and the particle of the care and care the control of the car

Pope. There are so many reports in circulation as to the means of ferringe he has at New-Madrid, that we do not know whether to believe he has a fleet of steamboats or is destitute even of a rowboat.

RIOT IN BURLINGTON. ANOTHER ATTACK ON FREE SPEECH. BURLISOTON, March 28, 1862.

A rlot of magnitude was expected here hat night, but the timely precautions of Major Allen prevented rested here as a Kebel sympathizer, incarcerated in Fort Lafavette, and subsequently released without Constitution was a compromise. The hall was crowded, many Republicans who opposed his views being present. There was no disturbance.

To maker the address of Col. Wall, the Rev. Samuel Aaron, a dergyman of Mount Holley, was invited. The following is a copy of the notice published in the Burlington papers:

To Ber, Samuel Aaron, it is a copy of the notice published in the Burlington papers:

To Ber, Samuel Aaron, it is a copy of the notice published in the Burlington papers:

The invitation was extended by the Mayor with flour and meal. To-day fifty more, loaded with sugar, colled, &c., are expected in our camp.

Gor. 54 Loois Republican.

McCleilan? The opositer said he was only commenting upon facts. "Yes," replied his interrogator, "if McClellan had a black stripe down his back he would suit you better." Mr. Aaron proceeded again for some ten minutes. He spoke of John Brown as being a martyr to principle—as a meek, heavenly-minded man, who went down South with peaceful intentions; whose sole object was to free the bondman from his shackles, and the bloody assasing nurdered him. Movements of Gen. Curtis's Division the bondman from his shackles, and the bloody assassins murdered him.

He went on to say that Colonel Wall had recently delivered a lecture in this hall, in which be had charged the Abolitionists with denouncing the Constitution as a "league with hell and a covenant with death." He did not believe this, unless the declaration of Judge Taney was correct—that the negro was not a citizen. If that decision was true, that he (the Rev. Mr. Aaron) did not hesitate to declare that the Constitution was a "league with hell and a covenant with death," and the sooner it was abolithed the better.

The latest intelligence we have from Strasburg to inhed the better.

Here there was a blast of eggs aimed at the speaker, but none of which touched him. The confusion which followed was almost indescribable. Ladies became frantic with ahrm, and some jumped from the hall windows, about eight feet from the ground. None were, however, seriously injured, a sprained ankle being about the most serious damage.

THE WESTERS SANITARY COMMISSION are under the necessity of renewing their appeal to the loyal citizens of the loyal States. The important movements and battles in the Departments of the West, are increasing the hospital demands beyond all expectation. Kausas is calling for aid, and the large army now occupying South-Past Missouri and Ar-kausas, locks to St. Louis for all io sopplies. The Commission has sent away to different points since the first of March 10,079 articles of various kinds, for hospital use, beside th local demand for 7,560 sick. This week a "Floating Hospital serious disturbance. The origin of the difficulty and will be fixed op and furnished by them, as a free will offering its results will be ascertained by the perusal of the

the results will be saced from official sources:

following facts, gleaned from official sources:

On the 22d of February, Col. James W. Wall was

It will be thoroughly fitted up with 23e beds, and provided. On the 22st of February, control of Buckington to de-wounded in event of battle.

Friend and foe will be treated, in this respect, alike. It will be readily seen that large and continued applies are taken to needed for the above-named uses. Flanuel shirts, Cauten expired.

of loval wereen in St. Louis are ready to do the work exactly It may not be improper to add that the whole amount of money contributed goes to the direct relief of the suffering. The office expenses, &c., of the "Commission" are ve small, their own services being gratuitously given, and the of whole amount of salaries paid for seven mouths does not ex-to use all pialaness of speech. For the Western Sanitary Commission, JAMES E. TEATMAN, WILLIAM G. ELIOT.

Money contributed will be received by L. A. ROOSEVELT. Ciothing and supplies may be sent to JAMES E. VEATMAN, Provident of the Western Sanitary Commission, St. Louis, Melas Hotel.

dated yesterday evening.

Ashby's Rebel force, with four guns, appeared near Strasburg, and threw several shells into our camp, killing one of our men and wounding another. His position was such as to prevent us from cutting him off.

Gen. Banks reconnoitered all the positions of the enemy, several miles around, and returned to came

The Rebel General Jackson is believed to be miet below Edenburg. Most of the inhabitants of Strasburg have b

Unionists throughout the war, and are so still. The agent of the Manassas Railroad and Station Master, who have been hiding for weeks in the mountains to avoid Gen. Jackson's forces, have returned and given valuable information to Gen. Many of the inhabitants have been realding for weeks in the mountains.

All is quiet to-day.

The Surgeon's return of the 34th Pennsylvania

THIRD WISCONSIN Wounded-Private A. S. Tracey.

Wounded—First Vincinia.

Wounded—Sergeant George Truax, Corp. W. H.
Hichcock, Privates James Simmons, J. McFarland, Wm. Murphy, J. M. Fordice, Chas. Palaston, David
Reed, George W. Stokeman, H. McCormick, S. J.
Martin, Charles Rawlings, Lawson Devers, P.
Robinson, Samuel Burnett, James Brown, Thornton

ONE-HUNDRED-AND-TENTH PENNSYLVANIA. ONE-HUNDRED-AND-TENTA FENNSYLVANIA.

Wounded.—Wm. A. Callaban, Serg't-Major; W.
Cunningham, Jacob Schwartz, Jacob French, Alfred
Brown, Corporal Charles Wheatley, Wm. P. Ramey, Joseph Cooper, John Dawson, Thomas M.
Stoan, J. W. College, W. H. Stutt.

Killed.—Tobine N. Edwards.

Killed.—Tobine N. Edwards.

Wounded.—Sergeant A. S. Brown; Corporels.

— Bruce, Isnac Hinckley; Privates Stephen Liles, George S. Flanders, James Emeracu; Lieutenant Craig, Privates F. Pearson, A. E. Brown, A. Fry, D. P. Parker.

A. Fry, D. P. Parker,
Thirteenth and A. Corporals J. T.
Wounded—Sergeaut F. Cowan; Corporals J. T.
Graham, H. Hardin; Privates George W. Baker,
William Mulloney, F. H. Wheeler. The following wo inded on Sunday died last night and were interred to-day by Capt. J. H. Vandemann, of the 66th Ohio, who was appointed by Gon. Shields

Sergt. John Kel y, Co. I, 17th Ohio.
Corp. Hare, Co. H, 5th Ohio.
Privates Thomas and J. C. Crow, Co. D, 1st Virginia; Mark L. Helm, Co. E, 13th Indians; Lawrence Wenser, Co. A, 67th Ohio. The body Sergeant-Major Jas. D. Webb of the 7th

A large and safe steamhoat has been purchased for this pur- Ohio, who died last night, will be detained until the arrival of his friends. Lieut. Williams of the 20th Ohio, one of Col.

Tyler's staff, killed on the battle-field, was buried Four prisoners were brought in to-day and were taken to their homes, their terms of service having

The officers in charge speak in high terms of the attention of Dr. Miller, resident physician, to our wounded. An officer of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad speaks confidently of a through connection to Cumerland being accomplished by Sanday. Brig. Gen. Shields is confortable and improving. There is nothing important from Strasburg to-day.

The lists of killed and wounded come in slowly, but it is hoped they will be completed by Monday. The bulk of the casualties, as already telegraphed, is believed to be nearly correct. The following official report is just received of the 10th Pennaylvania Resiment:

Gen. James of Riode Island, Gen. J. Gould of Rechester, Jas. T. Amos of Chicopse, Mass., and C. A. Buckingham of Connecticut, are at the St. Niche-